STATE CORRESPONDENCE.

Darien—Lumber Trade—Municipal Election—A Loyal Office-Hunter Squelched by Negro Aldermen—Col. E. S. Barclay.

DARIEN, GA., April 2d, 1870.

Editor Constitution: Darien before the war was a flourishing little place. During the "late unpleasantness," the city was burned by negro troops, who acted under the orders of a General Montgomery. Several neat and comfortable dwellings and stores have been built since the surrender of Lee's army.

Quite a large lumber and timber trade is now being conducted, and a number of vessels are loading at this time for Northern and European markets.

The municipal election held some months ago, resulted in the election of S. W. Wilson, Mayor, and four white and four colored members of Council. The white members refused to serve on account of fraud in the election. An injunction has been filed, and will come up for a hearing before Judge W. Schley, at the next (April) term of the Superior Court.

A few days since a company of United States troops came here and swore in the Mayor, only one white and four colored members of Council. The white member has since resigned, leaving the Mayor and four colored members of Council to transact the business of the city.

They had a meeting last night (All Fool's Day) when Col Charles H. Hopkins, of Radical and office-seeking notoriety, (being out of office) made application for the position of Inspector General of Lumber and Timber. The office is filled by Col. E. S. Barclay, and is worth about $2,000 per annum. Hopkins was badly April fooled.

I annex a transcript of the proceedings:

"Resolved, That the application of C. H. Hopkins, in the shape of a resolution removing Col. E. S. Barclay from office, instanter, as Inspector General of Timber and Lumber, of the city of Darien, be rejected.

Be it further Resolved, That the application of Col. C. H. Hopkins, to be appointed Inspector General in the place of Col. Barclay, be laid under the table now and for the future.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be served on Col. Hopkins.

Signed: S. W. WILSON, Mayor.

Col. Barclay is an accomplished gentleman, and this incontinent snubbing of Col. Hopkins must grate heavily upon his "loyal" feelings. Shouldn't wonder if Col. Hopkins don't apply to Gen. Terry for the application of the "sweat-box" to these disloyal and rebel negro aldermen. A.

Agricultural Society.

ATLANTA, March 30, 1870.

At a called meeting of the Executive Committee of the Georgia State Agricultural Society, the following gentlemen were present:

The President, Hon. B. G. Yancey, Messrs. Fitten, Livingston, Rawson, Steadman, Waring and Fannin, and Assistant Secretary, T. C. Howard.

Upon the motion of Mr. Fitten, the Committee endorsed and approved the supplemental and explanatory understanding of the contract with the Council of Atlanta, and the Georgia State Agricultural Society, entered into between the Mayor of Atlanta and the President of the Society, B. G. Yancey, on the 29th of March, 1870, which was as follows:

WHEREAS, The Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society of Georgia, entered into a contract with the City Council of Atlanta, with reference to holding the Fair of said Society for the year 1870, and the terms and conditions of said contract between said parties, are specified in writing, dated the 15th of February, 1870, and signed, on the part of the Executive Committee, by Ben. C. Yancey, President of the Georgia State Agricultural Society; and on the part of the City Council of Atlanta, by William Ezzard, Mayor of said city; and whereas, the parties who drafted said paper to express the agreement of said official bodies, did not use language so explicit as to exclude all doubt as to some of the conditions; and whereas, it is desirable that there should be an explicit understanding, now, we, the official heads of the contracting parties, do hereby agree upon the following construction of the contract, so far as we construe, (the rest of said contract being left to its plain import) to-wit:

The Executive Committee does not surrender, but retains its complete jurisdiction, control and management of the Fair and of the Fair Grounds, until the close of the Fair and removal of articles exhibited in October next. The President and Executive Committee will appoint the Chief of the Police to be furnished as well as the General Superintendent and Manager of the Fair Grounds, and all other necessary officers; all of whom will be accountable to and be under the control of the President and Executive Committee. But the Mayor and City Council may appoint persons to collect all the money due at the gates of the Fair Grounds and rent and collect rent due for the rents of booths and stalls for selling things (the word stalls in contract is improper so far as it might be used to refer to horse, cattle or other animal stalls) and to collect for side shows of all kinds, admitted to said Fair Grounds during the Fair, but no shows or amusements to be admitted save by order of Executive Committee. The open for entrance to Fair Grounds shall be the same, as well as for the season tickets, as hereinbefore described by rules of the Executive Committee, but members of the Society shall enter the Fair and exhibit articles free from any charge, with the immediate members of families of President, Vice-Presidents, Executive Committee, and other officers of the Society, as privileged. Said City Council has the right to retain the money so collected; their collectors or agents to be subject to the control, as to proper conduct, of the President and Executive Committee.

As witness our hands and seals this 29th day of March, 1870.

B. G. YANCEY,
President G. S. A. S.
WILLIAM EZZARD, Mayor.

Witness:
WM. M. WILLIAMS.

The President reported that he had arranged through Dr. F. C. Culver, the agent of Dent & Paige, the claim held by them against the Society for services rendered in procuring the Labaratory building for the last Fair at Macon, and that he had compromised said claim at five hundred dollars; whereupon it was

Resolved, That the President be empowered, and authorized to call upon the City Council of Atlanta, with reference to the five hundred dollars, with one dollar and twenty-five cents interest on the same, to be charged to account agreed to be assumed by the City Council of Atlanta, and that he be requested to report to the next meeting of the Executive Committee.

The President reported that he had procured a draft for $1,000 from the Treasurer of the Society, and had caused the same to be converted into bonds of the State of Georgia, which were then transmitted through the mails by the Assistant Secretary.

The Executive Committee then adjourned.

Attest:
President B. G. Yancey.
Livingston, Waring, and Steadman.

Mr. Steadman was absent by permission of the Committee.

Mr. Rawson reported the draft of a bill organizing a Bureau of Agricultural Chemistry, under the control of this Society, which report was adopted and ordered to be presented to the Legislature.

Mr. Livingston offered the following:

Resolved, That the Secretary, in conjunction with Council, open an office at once in this city; that the Secretary's office shall be open from 9 A. M. to 4 P. M., on each day, Sabbath excepted, for such business as should, or may be transacted therein; that the Secretary shall bring up all unfinished business in a systematic form as soon as possible; that the Secretary shall be careful not only to reply to all communications, but solicit by correspondence all and any information that may in the least degree advance the interests of the Society.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, A vacancy exists in the office of Chief Secretary by the resignation of Col. D. W. Lewis:

Resolved, That the Assistant Secretary, Thos. C. Howard, do control the office and discharge the duties thereof till the Chief Secretary is elected, and that all claims for premiums, or otherwise, be promptly attended to on presentation at the Secretary's office in Atlanta. The Secretary will advertise at once for one month in one prominent newspaper in Augusta, Macon, Columbus, Savannah, Albany, Athens and Rome, and THE CONSTITUTION, Intelligencer, New Era and Plantation, in Atlanta.

APRIL 2.

The Committee met at 10 o'clock, A. M. Present—the President, Messrs. Fitten, Livingston, Rawson and Waring.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, Col. D. W. Lewis has this day tendered his resignation as Secretary of the Georgia State Agricultural Society.

Resolved, That the same be accepted by this body.

The following resolution was adopted upon motion of Mr. Waring:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Committee that an interchange of ideas on agriculture and agricultural improvements with our sister States, is of great importance to us, and as a beginning we will send three delegates to the approaching great State Fair at New Orleans, under our official sanction, to represent this Society and its interests, and that our President, Col. B. C. Yancey, the Rev. C. W. Howard, and Mr. Livingston, of this body, be requested to act as delegates.

The regulations of the Fair, as amended, with instructions to the judges, were adopted. (These will appear in the published Premium List.)

A resolution was passed, ordering, at an early day, the publication of the perfected Premium List.

The Judges having failed at the last Fair to report upon Mrs. A. P. Wells' system of dress-cutting, upon her application, it was ordered that the Secretary prepare and issue, in her behalf, a certificate of the simplicity and value of her system.

The salary of the Chief Secretary of the Society was declared to be two thousand dollars per annum, and that of his assistant one thousand dollars.

Whereupon the Committee adjourned.

B. C. YANCEY, President G. S. A. S.
T. C. HOWARD, Assistant Secretary.

Editor Constitution: "Cacoethes scribendi" is not a disease of mine. It is rarely the case that I pen an article for publication, but instances of rare merit sometimes occur, so worthy of "honorable mention," that I feel it my duty to violate this chronic reticence. "Earnest" delivered a lecture in the College Chapel, Thursday evening, March 31st, on the subject of "Blue Lights." We had all heard of "blue lights," and seen favorable notices of the lecture, but the cheapness of newspaper puffing, and Earnest's youthful appearance forbade us to indulge any glowing anticipations.

During his lecture he was perfectly self-possessed, and his manner easy and attractive. For an hour his novel subject, and the masterly and useful application of it, held his audience spell-bound. Some, who were anticipating a gassy, sparkling, "airy nothing," all sound and fury and nonsense, were most agreeably disappointed; for reason of the highest order, guided and tempered by the best feelings of the heart, pervaded and characterized the lecture. All admired his ability—for he reasoned like a sage. All loved his purpose—for it showed him the Christian patriot, seeking to benefit his country and ennoble his race. Words fitly spoken are likened by the wise man to "apples of gold in pictures of silver."

In these degenerate times, when the worst passions of the human breast are stirred into activity, such a lecture as this, stimulating men to duty and pointing out the way, is pouring oil upon the "troubled waters," and entitles its author to a warm place in the hearts of all who admire the "true, the beautiful, and the good."

Very respectfully, etc.,
A. P. MOOTY.

Table Talk.

We can all remember, during the reign of Byron's poetry, how the world was flooded with Corsairs, Laras and Don Juans. It was next to impossible to enter any social gathering without finding some gloomy Lara, with folded arms, leaning in sad silence against the wall, or some slenderly mostached Don Juan, boasting of his success over the female heart. The Byronic frenzy has, in a measure, subsided, but an infinitely worse and more debasing literature has supplied its place. A class of books are issued with unexampled rapidity from the press, written by the most sensual of authors, scarcely even screening under a mask, the vices they portray, but rather advocating and sustaining the most sensual ideas.

Such books are every day placed in the hands of scores of young and tender parents, whose minds are like the wax in the molder's hand, and when their effect is demonstrated and the ruin accomplished, parents and guardians first awake too late to the duty they have neglected. Than these books, nothing can be more vitiating in its tendency, not even open association with vice to the mind and heart of the young. They excite a morbid taste for the mock sentimental, undermine the principles which should be first, forming for good, and prepares their victims to become the easy prey of the seducers to vice.

It is a slow poison working so gradually as to be almost unseen in its progress, unnoted until its effects are accomplished. He would be doing the moral world a good service who should publicly proclaim what of this ever-coming mass of books are unfit to be read. Parents should guard against the introduction of many of them into their houses with far greater pertinacity than they would guard against a pestilence, for that can only injure the body, while this class of reading is injurious alike to body and soul.

Woman Suffrage.

At a stated meeting of the Woman Suffrage Association recently, Mrs. Wilbour presented and read a letter from a woman in Georgia, saying that there is deep sympathy with woman suffrage there, and that the women want only a leader, some one who will organize conventions and manage meetings to show how strong a party there is in favor of the enfranchisement of women in the South. She particularly wished to know whether the Woman Suffrage party is pledged to either the Republicans or the Democrats. A motion was made to Mrs. Dr. Barclay, to read the letter, which led to a debate on equal pay for female clerks in the public departments, and the acknowledgment there publicly made, that it is useless to try to get the same pay for women that men get, until they have the vote, political influence being as potent in all departments of government employment.

Cayenne pepper on the stove is a sovereign remedy for women's rights meetings. It has a moving effect.

☞ Barnum's Book-Hunter tells the following anecdote of the author of The Sessons: "When 'Winter' had been completed in proof, Thomson thought, by a representation copy, to triumph over his uncle's scepticism, and to procure his good opinion he had the book handsomely bound. The old man never looked inside, or asked what the book was about, but turning it round and round with his fingers in grateful admiration, exclaimed—'Come, is that really our Jamie's dear son?—well, I never thought the crater wad hae had the headskeel to do the like!'"

☞ The Boston papers announce the death of Col. Monroe, the musician who had the band of Seven Napoleons from Saffins into the custody of the Comanches, when he was leading Mooney, by his chilled riding in the affair of the Red Robed Nuns, when an overwhelming force of Mexicans, 20 to one, he was saved by the rapid driving of his coachman Custer.

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION.
OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY,
THE LARGEST CITY, COUNTY AND STATE CIRCULATION.
DEFIES REFUTATION.
BY W. A. HEMPHILL & CO.
I. W. AVERY, Editor.

MORNING EDITION.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, APRIL 7.

☞ The Augusta factory has declared a dividend of 5 per cent.

☞ The Charleston Courier wants an assistant editor.

☞ Fifty-eight marriage licenses were issued last month, in Chatham county, Ga.

☞ Seventy-five thousand white shad were shipped from Savannah during the past season.

THE RYLAND RANDOLPH AFFAIR.—A special dispatch from Tuscaloosa, Alabama, states that in the affray between Randolph and Smith, two bullets penetrated Smith's hat close to his head, one struck his belt buckle glancing, and one slightly wounded him in the back. Randolph's life was saved by his pocket book, thickly wadded with fractional currency, which was completely penetrated by a bullet, within a few inches of his heart, barely interrupting it. Randolph's condition is considered favorable.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS WOMAN FOR THE PRESIDENCY.—Mrs. Woodhull, of the firm of Woodhull, Claflin & Co. Brokers, announces herself as a candidate for the next Presidency.

She says, in winding up her views of the political situation: "I have deliberately and of my own accord placed myself before the people as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, and having the means, courage, energy and strength necessary for the race, intend to contest it to the close."

Train is the other female candidate for the same office.

The Constitution as an Advertising Medium.

THE CONSTITUTION has the LARGEST circulation of any paper published at this point. Its lists are rapidly swelling along ALL the lines of railway leading into the city and in Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee. The variety and quality of its reading matter; its bold stand for the right; its FULL market reports from all parts of the country; its talented corps of correspondents—not only in the State—but at Washington, New York and Paris; in a word, its live character, has caused it to find its way to all portions of the State and in Tennessee and Alabama. Our business men, we know desire to extend their trade, and we thank them for the liberal patronage extended to THE CONSTITUTION. The mercantile world can appreciate the advantages resulting from advertising in a popular and widely circulated paper. That they do appreciate THE CONSTITUTION as the BEST advertising medium, is demonstrated by our columns during the past twelve months.

The Bingham Amendment—Its Iniquity.

The Young Men's Republican Club, of this city, at a recent meeting, whose proceedings were published in their organ, pronounced the Bingham Amendment iniquitous.

The application of this adjective to the amendment refered to has excited some curiosity on the part of the public as to whether the young gentlemen, who pronounced such a judgment upon the policy of one of the most prominent members of their own party, were really in earnest, or know the meaning of this word so glibly used by them.

If they were in earnest, and meant what they said, some of their senior brethren no doubt, have already quietly suggested, that they are too young to play with edged tools—double edged ones at that.

If they have a hidden mystic meaning for the word, that is esoteric in their party, outsiders in this part of creation have but little curiosity to discover it. The people of Georgia have seen enough of openly practiced iniquity since the Radical party have been in power, to satisfy them for several years to come.

If the indiscreet young gentlemen, (and they must be young indeed,) apply so vile an epithet, as iniquitous to the proposition of one of the leading members of their own party, what may not be expected when they untie their tongues and open on the unfortunates who boldly oppose their party and its schemes?

Worcester defines iniquity as want of equity, injustice, unrighteousness; also, as a wicked act, wickedness, crime. Thus it will be seen that in the Court known and designated as the Young Men's Republican Club of Atlanta, Mr. Bingham (if the Court knows itself, and it is presumed it does,) has been arraigned, indicted, charged, found guilty, and rendered infamous as a criminal. His accusers signify that he is unjust, unrighteous and wicked. Alas, poor Bingham!

Woman's Rights and Female Suffrage.

The indications of the active agitation of the question of Female Suffrage at the North, daily attract the attention of the news-monger. The apparent extent of the earnest agitation of this subject is calculated to astonish the people of the South who have been so much in the habit of pursuing the even tenor of their way, and are generally indifferent to the many novelties that Northern progressives so love to ventilate and shove into notoriety.

To the cry sent up about woman's wrongs, chivalrous men can not turn a deaf ear. We, of the South, where the women have not been the majority, have little practical knowledge of the sufferings, the trials, the temptations, and the wrongs to which toiling women are exposed, in densely populated sections and in crowded cities. Heretofore, the relative proportion of males and females, the sparseness of the, and the general prosperous and well-to-do condition of the, males have enabled them to easily care for and protect their dependant female relatives, from most of the hardships to which impoverished women are exposed at the North.

What we may come to in course of time, it is impossible to foretell. Our changed circumstances indicate to a moral certainty, that causes like to those that have so crushed and weighted down unfortunate women elsewhere, must and will have like effects here. Therefore, on the principle of that an ounce of preventative is worth a pound of cure, it is rational advice, to recommend our people to dispassionately study the social condition of many women at the North in order that they may anticipate and ward off results that are perceptible there.

The disgust with which our people turn from the unwomanly exhibitions, gotten up by the strong-minded of the sex, should not deter us from calmly considering the rights of unprotected women in her to all time to come. Among these rights is, a place in our hearts as a ministering angel, whose mission is to elevate, refine and purify humanity. Gratitude commands us to labor for her happiness and the prolongation of her influence over us for good.

Miss Susan B. Anthony and other strong-minded women of her ilk, think that woman can best obtain her rights through the ballot. If it is the deliberate judgement of the seriously-reflecting women of the country, that, after dispassionately studying the question, she is right, then, "so be it," most right-minded men will say.

On the other hand, the agitation, inaugurated by these strong-minded women, in regard to suffrage, has aroused the opposition of some of the most intellectual of the sex, who are champions of what they define to be the true mission of woman, and propose to educate and prepare the unfortunate among them for the fulfillment of that mission, whether it be as the head of a family, or as a feme sole struggling to protect herself.

Theodore Tilton, of the New York Independent, advertises a request, that every one interested in the question of female suffrage, send in to him their names and address, postage paid, as he wishes to distribute, free of charge, campaign documents relating to this subject. He advocates female suffrage.

A few days since, at a large meeting in New York, of ladies of various denominations of religious belief, called to revive a Woman's Education Society, Henry Ward Beecher read an interesting address, written by his sister, Catherine E. Beecher, in which she took strong grounds in favor of preserving the femineity of woman, and educating her fully in every department of knowledge, theoretical and practical, that will enable her to perform her mission in every relationship and condition.

OUR PARIS LETTER.

Montalembert's Remains, etc.

Special Foreign Cor. of The Constitution.

PARIS, March 19, 1870.

It is said Father Secchi, the Roman astronomer, the "spots on the sun" discoverer, who has quit the Jesuits, after a row, has arrived in Paris. Fifteen years ago the Jesuit Parsaglia, threw off his frock, and put on a Garibaldi jacket.

Montalembert's remains were interred without ostentation. A simple hearse drawn by two horses, without any theatrical trappings of woe, followed by a crowd, but une foule d'elite. Of course many strangers were present, as is usual on these occasions, where a respectable bouquet of the celebrities of the nation meet for an hour, and in answer to the inquiries of "who's who," the intelligent foreigner mistakes Z for A. After the celebration of the mass, the body was deposited in the family vault at Pickus, a cemetery at the city boundaries, and celebrated as the burial place for some two thousand members of the aristocracy, that the reign of terror sent "smiling to the scaffold."

Amongst the distinguished mourners was Father, or Mr. Hyacinthe, who appeared for the first time since his hybrid secession from Rome, in civilian dress.

The character of the deceased is differently appreciated. It floated continually between independence and submission. He cried aloud for liberty, with Lacordaire and Lamennais; but while the latter declined to bow beneath the Yoke of Rome, he did so. As an orator, he will go down to posterity; but as a writer he will be forgotten. Outside of his sect, his works present none of that genius which attracts and retains. He displayed great talent, mingled with an affected naivete, and a beautiful style—but necessary to avoid. He was never a leader, but a haughty disciple; a first lieutenant in an army that had no Alexander. He was very sensitive to attack. Sainte Beuve, the great Free-Thinker, was afflicted with, and died of, the same malady—the stone—as Montalembert. He assured the Count, "they were comfortable in illness, but where Providence has pleased to strike you, nature has afflicted me." This style of retort told. Many good "Catholics" viewed his infirmities as a matter of thankfulness, to keep him from dabbling in the contentions of the religious world. His late letter against the Papacy fell short of its mark, because it was in the character of the man to "submit;" aye, even to the whole bill of the Syllabus, when it became law. This kind of advocacy of freedom, simple people do not understand. Since 1857, when he was defeated in his candidature for the Chamber, he has lived very privately. He knew English and German profoundly, and Brounson and Bunsen were his favorite authors. He hated that progress which excluded all "but beef-root and bitumen." He leaves a wife and four daughters—the eldest is a nun, or as he himself said, a volunteer in "l'armee du sacrifice."

DEATH OF DON HENRI—THE DUKE DE MONTPENSIER.

The death of the "infant Don Henri," has not set the Manzanares on fire, nor has the explanation of some of the Spanish journals, that the calamity was "accidental"—the explosion of the Don's own pistol—added much to the history of the duel. In fact, the rencontre was expected to come off a week ago. It is simply an affair of not washing the family linen at home. The deceased really believed himself a Republican, and abused by certain members of that party. Short of horse-whipping Montpensier on the Prado, he left no means untried to outrage him. When asked to retract his last brochure, he replied by sending another copy "with the author's compliments." Nothing left but pistols for two and measure the ground. The Duke de Montpensier is not less popular in Spain than in France. He is as penurious and double-dealing as his father, King Smith the First. He has no great love for villainous saltpetre, but he received with folded arms and unflinching courage, the fire of his cousin, whom he believed to be in earnest, after the third round, and when a ball grazed his cheek. The Duke had disabled the Prince's revolver, and he politely offered his own to finish up. Lending a man your pistol to blow out your brains, does look like the acme of civility. The Prince, as he foreboded, fell, the ball passing through his temples, and thus closed the career of the Infinite Egalite of Spain. As the Free Masons gave him "absolution"—an act of grace that will force the Pope to add an additional canon to the Syllabus—so the brothers of the mystic tie clustered strong to bury his—an event that failed to be worked up to a political demonstration. The Duke remains prisoner on parole, till justice looks into the matter. As a marshal, he can claim a court-martail of six generals, and if found guilty, banished. But exile to the Canaries, or any other "island of the blest," lasts till your friends can fit out a ship to bring you back.

It is useless speculating on the political consequences of the duel. It can not raise to a greater white heat the opposing passions of the several factions. Personally, the Don was liked; he was a sort of bluff King Hal, and had the sailor's frankness about him. To the last he esteemed ex-Isabella—for

"The heart that once truly loved, ne'er can forget."

He was her first and only lover—for after this, all a woman "loves is love"—but the citizen King schemed her over to his eldest brother, whom, while regarding as a fool, he ever esteemed. He leaves four children, who will be taken care of by Don Francois, the ex-King. The deceased ever liked to mix and talk with journalists, to show, as he avowed, that idiotcy was not the badge of the whole Bourbon tribe. Matters were in an advanced state to conclude a match between him and a wealthy Boston lady, an Hidalgo di sangre azul. Think of that fair penitents of the Fifth Avenue, who have bartered happiness and health to be a baronne or a Comtesse, and to know who you are the papers have to explain the "Comedy of Error," by superadding nee Brown, Jones, or Robinson.

PRINCE PIERRE AND THE PRISON AUTHORITIES.

Prince Pierre Napoleon leaves to-day, his Paris prison, for that at Tours, where he will be lodged in the two best rooms belonging to the Governor. The Director of the Paris prison and two Colonels will hand over the accused to the authorities of Tours.

Forty soldiers, natives of Corsica, and belonging to the several regiments in Paris, took leave of Pierre, their countryman, yesterday, who has also been inundated with bouquets and pink notes.

The trial will commence on Monday, and will close Friday. The Court Council, Ex-[illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, APRIL 7.

One Hundred and Seventy-Five bales of cotton have been sold on the Atlanta market during the present season, and that is not yet reported for publication.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON.—The grand event of the period will be the opening of Mr. Durand, next week.

GOOD TEMPLARS.—Dr. Dunbar is meeting with great success in establishing lodges of Good Templars in the State. Some twenty-six have been organized.

BRUNSWICK AND BRICKS.—We learn from a responsible source that there is not a brick house in Brunswick! Brick dealers will note this fact.

MINT JULEPS.—The thanks of the Composing room are returned to "Mike" over the Horse Shoe Saloon for the liquid refreshment in the shape of Mint Juleps sent them yesterday.

VETERINARY SURGEON.—Atlanta is a good location for a veterinary surgeon. We should like to see a professorship of the science added to the Medical College here.

FIRST OF MAY.—The First of May this year, comes in on Sunday, but nevertheless will be observed on Monday. Stone Mountain seems to be the place selected for all the picnic parties.

SIXTH OF APRIL.—Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of Shiloh and the death of General Albert Sidney Johnson. The ladies of New Orleans observed it as a "memorial day" by decorating the graves of the Confederate dead.

IRATE.—The chap who stood breathless with rapture for half an hour, the other night, at Barrett's auction room, listening to his hand organ, now swears it was a hurdy-gurdy, because he was mistaken as the accompanying monkey.

GETTING HIM OUT OF TROUBLE.—A lawyer yesterday got a man out of the chain gang, by writ of habeas corpus, and fined him for divorce at the instance of his wife. He got a long fee in both cases.

CICERONIAN LITERARY SOCIETY.—We are indebted to the above society of Roanoke College, for an invitation to be present at their anniversary celebration on the 19th inst., and regret that we can not attend upon that interesting occasion.

CITIZENS' MEETING.—A meeting will be held at Payne's Chapel to-night, to appoint appraisers to act in connection with those appointed by the City Council, to assess the damages and benefits resulting from the widening of Marietta street.

CORRECTION.—The Route Agent on the Atlanta and West Point Railroad, says that there is no such Post-Office near Newnan, as Line Creek. We received a letter from Mr. Wood, dated "Line Creek, near Fairburn, Ga." But the fault was complained of as existing somewhere between Atlanta and Fairburn.

FOR SOUTHERN PORTS.—The fast sailing steamer Robert E. Lee, Charles Powers master, will dispatch her passengers at 4 o'clock this afternoon, at 3 o'clock precisely. Freight received up to 3½ o'clock. Bound for Charleston and intermediate ports.

A CUT DODGE.—The Reds are getting up a cute dodge. Five or six men meet every night or two, and form Republican clubs, "plain" and "straight," passing the same old resolutions and only changing the name and officers at each meeting. They expect on a reasonable calculation, to make five or six clubs out of Superintendent Harris.

DISCHARGED.—The Habeas Corpus case of —— Long, sentenced to twelve months on the chain-gang by one of Bullock's Notary Publics, in DeKalb county, was heard yesterday by Judge Pitman. After hearing evidence and argument he discharged the prisoner on the ground of "want of jurisdiction." Dull and Gordon represented the Notary Public; L. J. Winn, the prisoner.

ROBIN RICE'S READY RECKONER.—The number for this week will exceed in richness of illustration and pungent paragraphs any heretofore issued.

The wood cuts are made by the son of Rough, (not yet fully grown, but headed out well) and evince his natural talent. With practical training by a skilled engraver, young Rice will take the front rank. Rice needs irrigation and cultivation. Hoi every one, be ready to report yourselves. Price, ten cents.

Editor Constitution: Can you inform the public through your valuable paper, why it is the Railroads centering here, do not build a car shed.

Are they not able? Or is it because they have not energy and enterprise enough? I would suggest to the officials that they place the matter in the hands of Mr. H. I. Kimball. He has energy and enterprise enough to build them a fine car shed, and at short notice, too.

Respectfully, STONE.

The attention of the Railroad officials is called to the above. EDITOR.

INTERESTING TO HOUSEKEEPERS.—Messrs. S. S. Kendrick & Son inform us that their new stock of House Goods will be in during this week. The stock will embrace some very rare novelties in Carpets, Oil Cloths, Mattings, Window Shades, Lace Curtains, etc. White and Check Mattings will be made specialities during the Summer; and to make their House "head-quarters" in Mattings, they will put them down free of charge. Carpets, they inform us, are much lower.

HOW IS THIS FOR HIGH?—The Atlanta Intelligencer, of yesterday afternoon, says of the State road:

"We find that the newspaper press is heavy down upon this road. Some editor has been over the road and found some quarter of a mile of it in bad order. He publishes this fact, and it soon finds its way into the newspapers, and from these account and would suppose that the State Road was in the last stages of reconstruction. Some accidents have occurred on that road recently, but the trains run regularly, and a vast amount of freight is daily passing over the road." (Italics our own.)

If you call from Cartersville to Kingston "some quarter of a mile," and accelerate every day or two "some," then there might be some ground for disputing the statements of the press generally. The writer of this passed over the road and speaks from experience!

DENTAL CONVENTION.—The Southern Dental Convention meets at New Orleans on the 15th inst. Everything has been done to secure a large attendance, many railroad companies agreeing to transport delegates at the rate of full fare coming and return free. Among those companies who offer these liberal terms, we note the following: New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad, Mississippi Central Railroad, Pat Handle Route, Memphis and Louisville, Erie Railway, Southern Mail Line, Louisville and Cincinnati Short Line Railroad, St. Louis and Iron Mountain, Chicago and Alton, North Missouri, Michigan Southern and Lake Shore, Selma, Rome and Dalton, Buffalo Bayou, Brazos and Colorado Rail Company, Illinois Central, and Michigan Central Road, Western and Atlantic, and Atlanta and West Point Roads.

Mr. Charles Morgan offers to bring delegates by his Mobile and Galveston lines at full fare coming, and half fare returning.

ATLANTA, GA., April 4, 1870.

Mr. Editor: I had an interview, two days since, with one of the negroes who have just emigrated from Washington. I asked him if they accomplished anything in going to the Capital. To which he replied, that he did not know, but hoped they had carried their point, which was to defeat the Bingham amendment. During the conversation he had occasion to take out his pocket book, and I remarked to him that he seemed to have plenty of money.

"Oh, yes," said he, with a nod and a grin, "I've got lots of it," upon which he exhibited no small quantity — enough, I think, to induce any one to give up profitable employment and go to lobbying for Bullock, provided they were not strictly opposed to his faction. Now, I want to know who has to pay these negroes, with many others who are lobbying for Bullock? Does Bullock do it with his own money? We are all aware he does not.

One great "Experiment" did come during Bullock's administration: he was not satisfied to extend the State Treasury Ring the Railroad of the State, but must cast an apple between the white and negroes of Georgia. From what I have seen, and heard, I am clearly of the belief he has fully succeeded his colored brethren for their services, but in doing it he has committed one of the greatest blunders of our State — one that will prove a curse upon the history of our State. As a matter of fact, the negroes are the best friends the white people have in the State, and I think if the white people of Georgia had voted with the negroes in the election of Governor, Bullock would have been defeated. Then the negroes would have had no cause to complain, and the white people would not have been disgraced by having a man like Bullock for Governor.

JOY TO THE WORLD.—Gladness is the result of using Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla. Among the many medicines now offered to the afflicted, this is the only one which has stood the test of time, and proved its value to the human race. Years of experience, and thousands of cures, are the best recommendations this unrivaled remedy. Dr. J. Randolph Tutt, Proprietor, Washington, D. C. Sold by all druggists. Dr. Tutt's Sarsaparilla is the only one which has ever received a premium from the Institute. Dr. Tutt's Pills are universally recommended by the profession. Office No. 39 Park Place, New York. Sold by all druggists.

CAUTION.—AUDACIOUS COUNTERFEIT.—The reputation which, for many years, has attached to "Hostetter's Stomach Bitters," as the standard tonic of the age, and the large demand for the article, not only in the United States but elsewhere, have provoked the cupidity of the counterfeiting tribe, and it has been extensively simulated and imitated by unscrupulous sharpers.

The most daring counterfeit of said article, which has been attempted, has recently come to our knowledge. The engraved steel label on bottles containing the genuine bitters, with its beautiful vignette of St. George and the dragon, its shield, containing a warning against counterfeiters, and its note of hand for "one cent" at the foot, signed with our firm name, has been copied so closely, that the fraud can only be detected on a minute inspection. The dark label is also well counterfeited, and the wording on both the imitation and genuine, are precisely the same, the difference being simply in the execution of the work; that of the imitation being somewhat coarser. Other imitations of the counterfeits are on the market, which are in all particulars the same as described above, with the exception of a slight difference in the spelling of our name.

In addition to the above, these counterfeiters have gone so far in some instances as to place a strip of paper over the cork, and fasten to the neck of the bottle, on which is a vignette, and otherwise pretend to resemble the general appearance of our proprietary U. S. Revenue stamp, but upon inspection will disclose the absence of the figure "4," and the words "four cents." Also, "United States Internal Revenue," all of which, together with additional wording, appear on our genuine stamp. The public are, therefore, especially warned against these new counterfeits, and are advised to purchase Hostetter's Stomach Bitters only of houses whose integrity is above suspicion. The true specific is sold in bottles exclusively—never in bulk.

We notice that W. A. Lamball is sole agent for Dow's "Ice Cream Soda Apparatus." He has now on hand a sample of their make, with all the modern improvements. As the hot months are approaching, it would be well to give this matter your attention.

He will shortly receive a magnificent apparatus, intended for his own use. This is a mammoth concern, combining beauty with strength, and machine with splendid soda water. We anticipate the full cream attachment, which is a great improvement, and extraordinary, none need complain of being hot the coming season.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb20-d&eo6m

DR. JOHN BULL'S Great Remedies.

DR. JOHN BULL,

Practitioner and Author of the Celebrated

Smith's Tonic Syrup,

FOR THE CURE OF

AGUE AND FEVER,

Chills and Fever.

Dr. John Bull, one of the most eminent physicians of the South, has been induced by justly citizens for it a number of years, to make public over offered to the public for the cure, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, Dumb Ague, Fever and Ague, and all other forms of disease arising from malaria, which are to be found in such great abundance in the Mississippi valley and other sections of our country. In a great many cases of obstinate cases that have baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians, and in which all other remedies had been tried and failed, this remedy has been followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is, however, prudent, and in every case more certain to cure, if the use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been broken up. This is especially the case in obstinate or long standing cases. Usually, the medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should any exist, however, a single dose of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Family Pills will be sufficient.

Bull's Worm Destroyer.

To the United States and Western Readers.

I have received many testimonials from professional and medical men, as my almanacs and various publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following letter from a highly esteemed and popular Baptist Preacher, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Its statement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony deserves to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of BULL'S WORM DESTROYER.

VILLA ROW, Walker County, Ga., June 28, 1869.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderfully efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the desired effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authors, that is so certain and speedy in its effects. On the contrary, they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine direct from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line M. D.'s but I see no just cause or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know does relieve, in many cases, from the ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means not calculate suffering humanity which I may be able to command — not violating human sense and propriety — that myself may have learned its effects first and secured the sole right to secure that knowledge. However, I am by no means an advocate or supporter of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of diseases with human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms. I am, sir, most respectfully,

JULIUS P. CLEMENT M. D

Bull's Sarsaparilla.

A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.

READ THE CAPTAIN'S LETTER AND THE LETTER FROM HIS MOTHER.

BENTON BARRACKS, Mo., April 29, 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Knowing the efficiency of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and remedial qualities it possesses, I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for sixteen months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed yet. I have not got up a sound place yet. A ball has also gone through the hips. My general health is impaired, and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in anything else. I wish that some Druggist would establish a depot here. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

Capt. C. F. JOHNSON.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1868, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, Mother of Captain Johnson.

DR. BULL—Dear Sir: My husband, Dr. C. F. Johnson, was a skilful surgeon and physician in Central New York, where he died leaving the above C. F. Johnson to care for me. I am in the village of Ogdensburg, and have been afflicted with a chronic diarrhœa and neuralgia, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. In ordinary cases, I think the Sarsaparilla would be a remedy for such diseases, but mine is a peculiar case. I have had the best medical attendance, but no success has attended it. The cures effected in other cases of scrofula and fever sores were almost miraculous. I am very confident that if you will again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla, He is afraid of getting a spurious article, hence his writing to me for it. The wounds were terrible, and he is still very ill. Respectfully, Yr. JOHNSON

Testimony of Medical Men

Yours Truly, WILL CO., ILL., May 20, 1868.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville and purchased a bottle of your Sarsaparilla, and I am happy to say it has done me more good than any medicine I ever took. I was afflicted with a cough, and some chronic affection of the throat, and was troubled with a pain in the left breast, which has entirely left me. I have also been troubled with a pain in the left side, which has left me entirely. I have also been troubled with a pain in the left side, which has left me entirely. THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION.

I AM THINE.

BY M. EDMOND SCHERER.

Lord, I am thine, all glory to Thy name;
I to Thy law my life, myself resign;
Of right Thou dost my love, my worship claim,
And I am Thine!

In paths of doubt I wandered lost of yore,
When, lo! upon my path Thou deign'dst to shine:
Once was my heart a void, and death in store;
Now I am Thine!

The earth erewhile enchained my captive soul,
But now I dwell beneath Thy rule Divine;
Sweet is Thy yoke; on Thee my cares I roll;
For I am thine!

Ah to receive with welcome to Thy heart,
Thine arms outspread, and looks of love, combine:
Lord, I come: I choose that better part;
Thine, wholly Thine!

Possessing Thee, I am of all possest,
And 'tis by faith this happy lot is mine;
Upon Thy bosom, Lord, in peace I rest,
Thine, only Thine!

None from Thy book of life shall blot my name;
No tempter from Thy paths my steps incline;
'Tis death, 'tis life, Thy piercing glance of flame,
But I am Thine!

While on this earth I sojourn by Thy will,
My Saviour and my God, that will be mine;
Till safe in Heaven I bless Thy mercy still,
Forever Thine!

☞ An evening paper asserts that a revival in Oberlin College "has resulted in the conversion of 100 to 150 students." We wonder if it also increased the finances of the college by fifty per cent.

☞ A young lady pupil in a Western female college thus closes a letter to a friend: "But I must stop, for here comes a-soph, who parts his hair in the middle, and wears a mustache that pricks dreadful."

THE ADVENTURES OF A COUNTRY GIRL. All the country girls ought to read that story from the police records of the adventures of a country girl who recently passed two or three days in a city. She answered a matrimonial advertisement, was so drawn into correspondence with a city sharper, came from her country home under an engagement to marry a man she had never seen, and was thus lured to her ruin. We hope not many country girls are so foolishly trusting.

☞ The Wine trade of California promises to be one of its greatest sources of wealth. The entire State, 600 miles long and 130 broad, is suitable for cultivating the vine; except in those sections where the land is over 3,000 feet above the level of the sea. From Oregon to San Diego the grape is grown. In 1864 it was calculated that 12,000,000 vines bore fruit, and the increase was probably 4,000,000 a year. To-day there are at least 30,000,000 vines, covering about 45,000 acres. The amount of wine which competent authorities think might be made if all the grapes were used for the vintage would be 30,000,000 gallons. One wine-maker alone produces 450,000 gallons.

Variety.

The Louisville Journal says Sheridan is about to order a new coat of arms, having promised to bestow upon his orderly that bearing the torch and the burning haystack. The device of the new one will represent a wooden soldier rampant, with one foot resting upon a pile of Indian women and children with their throats cut from ear to ear. One hand will sustain the American flag, and the other will grasp a butcher-knife pointing downward and streaming with blood, while from the heroic lips of the warrior will fall the motto in inarticulate thunder, "Thus Perish the Enemies of my Country."

The Christian Union suggests to clergymen that editors should specially be prayed for. A good idea.

A gentleman was chiding his son for staying out late at night, or rather early next morning, and said: "Why, when I was your age, my father would not allow me to go out of the house after dark." "Then you had a deuce of a father, you had," sneered the young profligate. Whereupon the father very rashly vociferated: "I had a confounded sight better one than you, rascal."

The ruin of most men dates from some vacant hour. There is a satirical poem, in which the devil is represented as fishing for men, and fitting his bait to the taste and business of his prey; but the idler, he says, give him no trouble, as he bit the naked hook.

"LOVE STRUCK."—That "young man," who on returning to his room from a visit to his "sweetest" last Sunday night, intended to hang up his "Sunday clothes" in his wardrobe and go to bed—was so far beside himself that he undressed, took his clothes and put them nicely to bed and covered them up, and then went and hanged himself up in the wardrobe. He discovered his mistake when his "hold" broke.

Chicago belles number their accepted suitors and marry them in rotation.

A LADY BORN DEAF AND DUMB TALKS ON HER DEATH BED.—Elizabeth Cordrey, of Tyaskin district, Somerset county, Md., was born a mute and was never known to utter a syllable until Saturday, on which day, our informant states, she was fifty years old. She had been confined to a bed of sickness for some time, when, on the day mentioned, to the great surprise of her family and friends, she began talking fluently, and from then to the hour of her death, which occurred on the following day, she prayed almost unceasingly in an audible voice and understandingly. The lady, we learn, has two sisters and a brother, also mutes.—Eastern Shoreman.

Anecdote Melange.

Who shall say that the wit and beauty of the country is not largely to be encountered in Washington during the sessions of Congress? Instance: Two or three winters since the pretty face and stylish figure of a young lady named Brown, from New Hampshire, were to be seen at most of the receptions which form so important an item in Washington society. Reports of the wealth of the young lady's papa served not to lessen the interest felt in her by the young men who much abound at such places. Silent, she was a power; but when she opened her mouth, which was seldom—alas!

At a large reception, the first she attended, among other celebrities, the Mexican Minister was pointed out to her. "Ah!" was her response, in pure innocence of soul, "where does he preach?" A few days afterward, while walking out with an intimate lady friend, who had been made aware of the terrible faux pas alluded to, her attention was directed to a fine mansion, which she was informed was the residence of the French Minister. "Why," said she, "I didn't know there was a French church in Washington!"

And of such is the kingdom of—Washington!

And now a little anent the juveniles:

A little girl who had been favored with glimpses of the upper sky, having been told by her mother that she was always surrounded by guardian angels, grew every thoughtful, and, after drawing a long breath, looked up and said, "Mamma, do you mean really that all the whole time they are with me?" On being answered yes, she exclaimed, with an impatient fling, "Well, really, I should like to be alone a little while sometimes."

Another little woman, being asked by her Sunday shool teacher, "What did the Israelites do after passing through the Red Sea?" answered, "I don't know, ma'am, but I guess they dried themselves." Why not?

"What have you done with your doll, Amy?"

"Lock it up, papa; doin' to teep it for my itty dirl when I get big, jess like mamma."

"Ah, but if you shouldn't have any little girl?"

"Never mind, papa; then I'll give it to my g'anchile."

A distinguished officer of the army, from whom the Drawer hopes to hear again, furnishes the conclusion to a prayer by the chaplain of an Ohio regiment in the Mexican war, which, after summing the causes and objects of the war, and showing that it it was no war of conquest, but annexation only, referred the Lord to Polkie Messeys on that subject.

A precocious but modest little lady of two summers was shown some pictures, including one of The Greek Slave.

"Mamma," inquired she, "is it a boy?"

"Well, you may call it a boy," was the

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary Apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by Impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED.

Being the only KNOWN Medicine

that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, loss of heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to its concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nerves, caused by the use of tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system are liable, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healing action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding, with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but KOSKOO should be taken at once to remedy the disorder, before a change in the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted by the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Is a sure and speedy remedy for all Diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is a Powerful Tonic, Alterative, and Diuretic, and acts directly upon the Urinary Organs, allaying Pain and Inflammation wherever located. It is especially recommended to those who have injured themselves by the use of Copaiba, Cubebs, Injections, etc.

KOSKOO

Is NOT a secret quack remedy, FORMULA around each bottle. Recommended by the best Physicians, eminent Divines, Editors, Druggists, Merchants, etc.

THE WILLINGHAM FERTILIZER

FOR COTTON, CORN, WHEAT.

THIS STANDARD MANURE, based after a well known practical Planter of South Carolina, combines in a concentrated form all the fertilizing elements necessary for production of COTTON, CORN and WHEAT, and by its use is certain to increase not only the quantity but to improve the quality of the products. It is made with a special view to the wants of the soils of the South, and can be relied upon as to exactness of material, containing large and necessary substances, the great test of which is found in forcing early maturity of crops. It can be depended on as uniform, always reliable, and productive of good crops.

ALBANY, GA.

Having a full knowledge of the composition and process of manufacture of the "Willingham Cotton, Corn, Wheat and Rice Fertiliser," I have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a most reliable fertiliser, one of the best in use, and most particularly adapted to the soils of Southern Georgia and South Carolina.
